Backlist Book of the Month

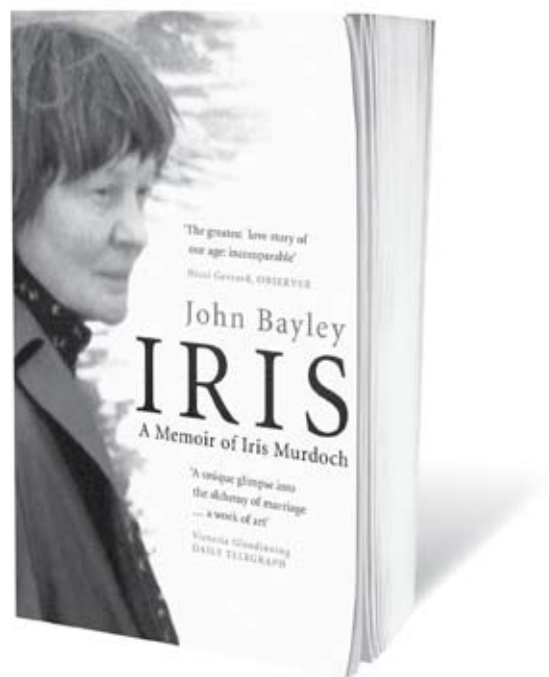

ABACUS

John Bayley's account of his long and loving marriage to the great novelist Iris Murdoch takes us on a journey, from their love affair's comically inauspicious beginnings in the Oxford of the early fifties to its slow and painful closure when the onset of Alzheimer's more than forty years later.

Wry, intelligent, and unexpectedly hilarious, Iris is an unforgettable inquiry into the nature of love and identity and a uniquely moving articulation of loss.

'One of the most moving, and therefore gripping, love letters ever written.'

– Daily Telegraph
